- 1 Dyslexic brains process information differently and have the Top 10 skills today's workplace needs.
- 2 Dyslexics see the big picture. We are good at spotting patterns, analysing data and simplifying information.
- 3 Dyslexics are imaginative innovators. We imagine new possibilities and ask 'what if' and 'why not'?
- 4 Dyslexics are master communicators who can explain things, clearly and simply.
- 5 Dyslexics are 'people' people – who know how to motivate, lead and inspire their teams and delegate effectively.
